Access, Participation and Success
7th International Biennial Conference

Online 26th & 27th April 2023

Through the looking glass: How Higher Education is using the lens of access, participation and success to create equity for all students

We invite academics, policy makers, and practitioners at all points in their careers, and very importantly students from across the UK (United Kingdom) and internationally, to join us for an important and practical 1.5-day online conference.

We will be using MS Teams to deliver our FREE online conference.

Look out for your invitation shortly and save a link to our website where we will be regularly adding conference details and resources.
